Note:

This song is provided in three different keys to facilitate modulations. The "repeats" ending is taken each time you sing another verse in the same key, the "end" ending is for the final verse of the song, and the "to key of..." ending is for modulations to the next key. Typically, you'll want to do three verses in one key and one in the next (i.e. C to D, or D to F). And of course, you can stay in one key for the whole song without modulating.

Use the final phrase ("Come and feed our hearts, O Lord") as the introduction.
